

Main: This class creates the GUI window with everything in it. It puts all of the other classes together to build the final product.

PointsLines: This class creates the points and the lines around the circle and does the math to determine where these points and lines belong.

